

BY SCAT DADDY
- DARK BAY OR BROWN COLT -

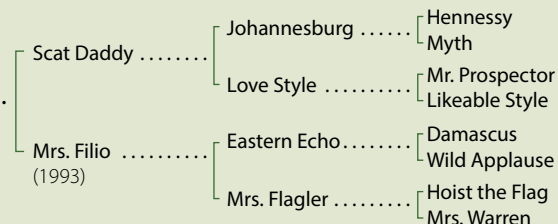

This horse was individually selected for Hibiscus Stables by legendary horseman Greg Gilchrist. Greg said, "The single most important physical feature that I look for in a horse is balance. It doesn't matter what's the horse's pedigree if he's not balanced physically. This colt has exceptional balance. All of his parts come together nicely. He's a very late April foal which means that he still has a lot of growing and maturing ahead of him. Once he grows up and fills out he's going to be a very nice horse. The fact that he's a full brother to a multiple stakes winner out of a very highly regarded young sire only adds to his appeal."

At stud Scat Daddy has sired 28 stakes winners and 17 graded stakes winners. From 2011 to 2013 Scat Daddy was the #1, #2, and #4 First Crop, Second Crop, and Third Crop Sire in North America respectively. Scat Daddy has sired G1-winners Lady Of Shamrock ($950,400) and No Say Never ($407,999) along with Daddy Long Legs ($1,343,231).

This colt has an "A" nick. Based on the definition, this rating means that this colt is 194% more likely (almost twice as likely) to be a stakes winner than the average horse. Historically, for this mating, sons of Scat Daddy bred to Eastern Echo mares, have produced 1 foal and it's a stakes winner.

This striking colt is a full brother to a multiple stakes winner. He's by a leading stallion who was a multiple G1 winner and earner of over $1.3 million. He has the breeding to compete at classic distances. He is a registered New York-bred and will run on the Belmont/Aqueduct/Saratoga circuit. He's nominated for the Aspirant Stakes and the New York Breeders' Futurity. He will be trained by Steve Klesaris.
